TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading – The one who trusts in the LORD is like a tree planted beside the waters (Jeremiah 17:5-8).

Psalm – Blessed are they who hope in the Lord (Psalm 1).

Second Reading – Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep (1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20).

Gospel – Blessed are you who are poor, hungry, weeping. Woe to you who are rich, filled, laughing (Luke 6:17, 20-26).

Rich in Poverty: Reflection on the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The blessings and woes we hear in today's Gospel mark the perfection of all the wisdom of the Old Testament.

That wisdom is summed up with marvelous symmetry in today's First Reading and Psalm: Each declares that the righteous—those who hope in the Lord and delight in His Law—will prosper like a tree planted near living waters. The wicked, who put their “trust in human beings,” are cursed to wither and die.

Jesus is saying the same thing in the Gospel. The rich and poor are, for Him, more than members of literal economic classes. Their material state symbolizes their spiritual state.

The rich are “the insolent” of today's Psalm, boasting of their self-sufficiency, the strength of their flesh, as Jeremiah says in the First Reading. The poor are the humble, who put all their hope and trust in the Lord.

We've already seen today's dramatic imagery of reversal in Mary's Magnificat. There, too, the rich are cast down while the hungry are filled and the lowly exalted (see Luke 1:45-55, also 16:19-31).

That's the upside-down world of the Gospel: in poverty, we gain spiritual treasure unimaginable; in suffering and even dying “on account of the Son of Man,” we find everlasting life.

The promises of the Old Testament were promises of power and prosperity—in the here and now. The promise of the New Covenant is joy and true freedom even amid the misery and toil of this life.

But not only that. As Paul says in today's Epistle, we're to be pitied if our hope is “for this life only.”

The blessings of God mean that we'll laugh with the thanksgiving of captives released from exile (see Psalm 126:1-2), feast at the heavenly table of the Lord (see Psalm 107:3-9), “leap for joy” as John the Baptist leapt in his mother's womb (see Luke 6:23; 1:41, 44), and rise with Christ, “the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.”

Faith Direct

This is a time of year when many of us focus on getting organized and “decluttering” our surroundings - why not streamline your offertory and simplify your support for St. Gertrude and the ministries that mean so much to you? Now is a great time to stop using checks and envelopes, by switching to eGiving - you can sign up from your computer, smartphone or tablet, and set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift.

Recurring gifts help give our parish a steady, consistent offertory that strengthens the programs, services, and ministries we lead for our church families and for those in need throughout the community. Sign up today by visiting faith.direct/NY83, or text ‘Enroll’ to 516-494-7947 or call Faith Direct customer service at 866-507-8757.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish family.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

To support married couples during this time of social distancing, Worldwide Marriage Encounter is sponsoring virtual marriage experiences. Some are on weekends and are seven sessions on weekdays from 7:00pm to 9:30pm. Couples will explore their individual personality styles, improve listening and communication skills, understand God’s plan for their marriage, and learn how to keep their relationship a priority. Registration is limited and a $100 application fee is required. For more information or to apply, call Chuck & Maria Reiss at 631-486-8607 or visit them at <https://wwmenyli.org/>.

“Give, and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap.” Give the gift of your love by attending an upcoming Worldwide Marriage Encounter experience.

Preschool News: The classes were all busy trying to finish their Valentine projects in time for the sweetest holiday of the year. Miss Carmela’s two year old class made heart bouquets and Valentine footprints, they worked on the letter Q. Miss Michelle’s three year old class made heart decorations and Valentine cards, they worked on the letter Q. Miss Wendy’s threes made Valentine’s Day mailbags and made Valentine patterns, they worked on the letter R. Miss Janice’s four year old class made log cabins for Lincoln’s birthday and a tooth for dental health month, they studied the letter P. Miss Meredith’s fours made roses and a heart picture based on the book they read, “The Day It Rained Hearts,” they studied the letter O. Since we held our Open House last week we have had a steady flow of phone calls for the 2022 -2023 school year. If you would like to take a tour, please email us through our website at www.stgertrudesprek.org or call us at 628-3710 to arrange for an appointment.

MASS INTENTIONS

One part of Catholic culture that is sometimes hard to understand and very often misunderstood is the custom of offering Mass intentions. When a priest celebrates Mass each day, he offers each celebration of the Eucharist for a particular person, or intention. By doing so he applies special graces from God upon that person or intention.

Please consider offering a Mass. Masses can be said for a departed love one, a special intention or in thanksgiving, for a friend who is living & suffering, for a celebration, for prayers that have been answered, for someone you know who can benefit from the spiritual graces that comes with having a Mass said on their behalf.

If your loved one’s date is not available, you can offer the wine & hosts in memory of your loved one for the week which will cover that particular date that you wish to pray for them. We know how important it is to remember your loved one on their day and we are trying to help insure that they are remembered and prayed for if not on their day then at least for the week.

Masses remain at $20 each or $50 for the wine & hosts celebrated for the week.

Don't miss out on these graces for yourself and those you love. Call or stop in the Parish office at (516)628-1113. Please wear a mask in our office.

Parishioners are invited to bring their old palms to church in the weeks ahead so they can be burned for the ashes used on Ash Wednesday. A basket will be in the rear of the church. Ash Wednesday is on March 2nd.

Retrouvaille Weekend - You Can Help Heal Your Marriage

Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse?

The Retrouvaille Program is for married couples facing difficult challenges in their relationships.

Primarily a practical program to improve communication, build stronger marriages and help couples reconnect. Presenters are not trained marriages counselors, but rather couples sharing their personal stories of marital struggles and the tools they used to rediscover their love.

For confidential information about the Retrouvaille program, or to register for the upcoming weekend that begins on Friday, May 13th, please visit our website www.helpourmarriage.org or call 1-800-470-2230 and you will be connected directly and confidentially to a couple from Long Island/Metro Retrouvaille who can help.

A message from Bishop John Barres

Dear Friends:

As One Family in Mission, we are called to Build a Community of Faith, Hope and Love. You answer that call and make a difference in the lives of so many in our community when you support the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

Your gifts help to build a community of Faith by supporting the education of our seminarians, deacons, and lay leaders as they prepare to serve in our diocese and local parish communities. You help us to bring our Faith to our young people in religious education classes and those participating in Youth, Young Adult and Campus Ministry programs. Your gifts bring Hope and Love to so many through our Parish Outreach Programs and Catholic Charities. More than 600,000 people are served each year through your faithfulness and generosity.

You are so important to the ministries that this Appeal supports and the people it impacts. Please prayerfully consider a gift to the 2022 Catholic Ministries Appeal. My prayers and thanks to you and your family.

Building a Community of Faith Hope & Love

"No vocation is born of itself or lives for itself. A vocation flows from the heart of God and blossoms in the good soil of faithful people."
-Pope Francis

Ordained in 2021, Fr. Wegiel was inspired to consider the vocation to the priesthood by his devout parents and his parish priest. Met with challenges to defend his faith as a college student at Stony Brook, he became active in Campus Ministry, which gave him the opportunity to build on his foundation of faith, grow in his prayer through Lectio Divina, attend retreats and participate in service projects. His participation in this ministry inspired him to learn more about his faith and to form a deeper life of prayer.

"Prayer is invitation to the relationship with God," shared Fr. Wegiel, Parochial Vicar at St. Mary's Manhasset.

FAMILY, MARRIAGE AND INDIVIDUAL THERAPY

Family, marriage and individual therapy, provided by New York State licensed therapists including therapists who specialize in Depression, Divorce Mediation and Domestic Violence, are available to our parishioners at 147 other parishes. This program, under the direction of Dr. George Giuliani, has been conducted in the diocese for the past 41 years for the convenience of parishioners. It is provided by the Catholic Counseling Center, which is independent of and not controlled or supervised by the parish or diocese. Most insurance policies, including Medicare, are honored. We are currently looking for licensed therapists in Nassau, Suffolk and Queens. For confidential information and appointments, please call Dr. Giuliani at the Catholic Counseling Center at (631) 243-2503 or go to our website at: <http://www.thecatholiccounselingcenter.com>.

“Getting Ahead in a Just-Getting By World”

An Invitation to Serve, in the District Council of Nassau North

We all know how the Society of St. Vincent de Paul regularly provides charitable assistance to neighbors in need. Beginning with the home visit, Vincentians perform numerous good deeds, many of which involve financial assistance (rent & utility bills), immediate needs assistance (food, furniture, etc.) and also counseling.

However, the challenges facing those in poverty are ever more acute today. The “Getting AHEAD” program, offered by the Society of St. Vincent de Paul across the country, is one approach to help these neighbors rise above the “tyranny of the moment” or crisis mode in which they are too often bound. It also answers the questions raised by many Vincentians: “What more can I do for my neighbor beyond the traditional home visit?” and “Is there a structured process I can become involved with that would make a difference?” If you are interested in joining, please email: svdpstgertrudes@gmail.com

Catholic Health Services' Skilled Nursing Facilities

Recognized for Excellence. CHS offers three highly recognized skilled nursing facilities, providing both short- and long-term care for patients and residents.

St. Catherine of Siena Nursing & Rehabilitation Care Center, Smithtown

Our Lady of Consolation Nursing & Rehabilitative Care Center, West Islip

CHS sees each individual as a whole, requiring care of the body, mind and spirit. Safe, compassionate care in the Catholic tradition. Caring isn't just what we do. It's who are.

Mask update: The Governor of New York State has included houses of worship in her recent directives. Therefore, since the Church does not require parishioners to present proof of vaccination in order to worship God, we ask that all parishioners (two years of age and older) comply with the requirement to wear masks when participating in any activities on parish grounds.

We will continue to adapt accordingly as new information becomes available. Your patience and Christian charity towards one another during this difficult time is appreciated.

WHY IS IT?
 A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas, bathes in an ADVERTISED shower, shaves with an ADVERTISED razor, brushes his teeth with ADVERTISED toothpaste, washes with ADVERTISED soap, puts on ADVERTISED clothes, drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee, drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . refuses to ADVERTISE believing it doesn't pay. Later, if business is poor, he ADVERTISES it for sale.
