Family of Love: Reflection on the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity.

Last Sunday, we celebrated the sending of the Spirit, which sealed God's new covenant and made a new creation.

In this new creation, we live in the family of God, who has revealed himself as a Trinity of love. We share in His divine nature through His Body and Blood (see 2 Peter 1:4). This is the meaning of the three feasts that cap the Easter season— Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, and Corpus Christi.

These feasts should be intimate reminders of how deeply God loves us, how He chose us, from before the foundation of the world, to be His children (see Ephesians 1:4-5).

Today's readings illuminate how all God's words and works were meant to prepare for the revelation of the Trinity and God's blessing in Jesus Christ—the blessing we inherited in Baptism, and renew in each Eucharist.

By God's word the heavens and earth were filled with His kindness, we sing in today's Psalm. Out of love, God called Abraham and chose his descendants to be His own people, Moses says in today's First Reading (see Deuteronomy 4:20,37). Through the Israelites, He revealed to the nations that He alone is Lord and there is no other.

In Jesus, God's word took flesh as a son of Abraham (see Matthew 1:1). And Jesus reveals in the Gospel today that the one God is Father, Son, and Spirit, and that He desires to make all people His own.

As He led Israel out of Egypt, God freed us from slavery, Paul says in today's Epistle. As He adopted Israel (see Romans 9:4), He gives us the Spirit by which we can know Him as “Our Father.”

As God's heirs, we receive the commissions of Moses and Jesus today. We are to fix our hearts on Him, and to observe all that He has commanded. The Eucharist is His pledge—that He will be with us until the end, that He will deliver us from death to live forever in the promised land of His kingdom.

Dr. Scott Hahn

Entrance Hymn: All Hail, Adored Trinity

1. All hail, adored Trinity! All hail, eternal Unity! O God the Father, God the Son, and God the Spirit, ever One.
2. Three persons praise we ever more, One only God our hearts adore: In thy sure mercy, ever kind, may we your strong protection find.
3. O Trinity! O Unity! Be present as we worship thee; And with the songs that angels sing unite the hymns of praise we bring.

Text: LM; Ave colenda Trinitas, ca. 11th cent.; tr. by John D. Chambers, 1805-1893, alt. Music: Genevan Psalter, 1551; attr. to Louis Bourgeois, ca. 1510-1561, alt.

Offertory Hymn: Holy, Holy, Holy

1. Holy, Holy, Holy! God almighty! Early in the morning our song shall rise to thee: Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and mighty, God in three persons, blessed Trinity.
2. Holy, Holy, Holy! All the saints adore thee, casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea; Cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee, which wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.
3. Holy, Holy, Holy! Though the darkness hide thee, Though the eye made blind by sin thy glory may not see, only thou art holy; there is none beside thee, perfect in power, in love, and purity.

Communion: The Supper of the Lord

Refrain: Precious body, precious blood, seen as bread and wine; here the Lord prepares the feast divine.
Bread of love is broken now, cup of life is poured: come, share the supper of the Lord.

1. 1. This is the bread of God coming down from heav'n, giving life to us, to all the world.
2. 2. "I am the living spring of eternal life; you that drink from me shall not thirst again."
3. 3. "I am the bread of heav'n giving life to you; you that eat this bread shall never die."
4. 4. "All those who feed on me have their life in me; as I have my life in the living God."

Text: Verses 1-4 based on John 4, 6. Text and music © 1994, Laurence Rosania. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.

Recessional Hymn: America the Beautiful

1. O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain, for purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain! America! America! God shed his grace on thee, and crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.
2. O beautiful for pilgrim feet, whose stern, impassioned stress a thoroughfare for freedom beat across the wilderness! America! America! God mend thine every flaw, confirm thy soul in self control, thy liberty in law.
3. O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife, who more than self their country loved, and mercy more than life! America! America! May God thy gold refine, till all success be nobleness, and every gain divine.

Text: CMD; Katherine L. Bates, 1859-1929. Music: Samuel A. Ward, 1848-1903.

On behalf of our pastor and the parish staff we would like to thank you for your patience, tolerance and kindness during these difficult times of the pandemic.

We are now permitted to return to a 100% capacity in our church. However, some social distancing should remain in place as best as possible for the sake of those who have not been vaccinated or whose health may be compromised. Our concern should always be the health and safety of our fellow parishioners.

We ask your continued patience and charity toward each other as circumstances develop.

Parishioners who are unvaccinated or whose health may be compromised as well as those who have continued concerns should continue to wear a mask.

The dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday and Holy Days of Obligation Masses remains in effect for the time being.

However, all of our parishioners are encouraged to consider returning to an active in person participation at Mass and other parish activities following the guidelines set by the CDC and NY State.

Thank you. Let us continue to support one another with our prayers and charity.

Catholics across the country are uniting to send a strong message to Congress that we oppose repealing the Hyde Amendment which protects our taxpayer dollars from paying for abortions.

Please sign the petition at www.notaxpayerabortion.com so that your voice is heard!

The Hyde Amendment and related laws:

1. 2.4 million Americans are alive today because of the amendment.
2. Congress and the White House have supported the amendment since it became law in 1976.
3. Many opinion surveys show a strong majority against tax dollars paying for abortion.
4. Once a long-time supporter of the amendment, President Biden is now committed to its repeal.

Without the Hyde Amendment:

1. Billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortions in the U.S. and overseas.
2. Getting rid of the amendment would likely lead to many more lives lost through abortion.
3. States' health benefits would likely be held hostage. States would be forced to either include elective abortion in Medicaid or be kicked out of the federal Medicaid program.

Please see our parish website for more details.

As many Congregations across the country were forced to close their buildings and work to find new ways to worship and conduct their ministries in the face of COVID-19, we know the need to enhance our digital and technological capacities to provide worship and other programs remotely.

Proceeds from the luncheon will assist enhancing internet services, video conferencing subscriptions, as well as investing in desktop and laptop computers, tablets, and smartphones to strengthen the creation and delivery of streaming worship, workshops, and other gatherings. We hope to continue presenting online gatherings or a combination of physical and online opportunities that will strengthen our offerings for years to come.

As always, thank you for your continued support of the Congregation. We hope you will join us on June 25th!

“Getting Ahead in a Just-Getting By World”

An Invitation to Serve, in the District Council of Nassau North

We all know how the Society of St. Vincent de Paul regularly provides charitable assistance to neighbors in need. Beginning with the home visit, Vincentians perform numerous good deeds, many of which involve financial assistance (rent & utility bills), immediate needs assistance (food, furniture, etc.) and also counseling.

However, the challenges facing those in poverty are ever more acute today. The “Getting AHEAD” program, offered by the Society of St. Vincent de Paul across the country, is one approach to help these neighbors rise above the “tyranny of the moment” or crisis mode in which they are too often bound. It also answers the questions raised by many Vincentians: “What more can I do for my neighbor beyond the traditional home visit?” and “Is there a structured process I can become involved with that would make a difference?” If you are interested in joining, please email: svdpstgertrudes@gmail.com

MASS INTENTIONS

One part of Catholic culture that is sometimes hard to understand and very often misunderstood is the custom of offering Mass intentions. When a priest celebrates Mass each day, he offers each celebration of the Eucharist for a particular person, or intention. By doing so he applies special graces from God upon that person or intention.

Please consider offering a Mass. Masses can be said for a departed love one, a special intention or in thanksgiving, for a friend who is living & suffering, for a celebration, for prayers that have been answered, for someone you know who can benefit from the spiritual graces that comes with having a Mass said on their behalf.

If your loved one's date is not available, you can offer the wine & hosts in memory of your loved one for the week which will cover that particular date that you wish to pray for them. We know how important it is to remember your loved one on their day and we are trying to help insure that they are remembered and prayed for if not on their day then at least for the week.

Don't miss out on these graces for yourself and those you love. Please call or stop in the Parish office at (516)628-1113.

MASS BOOK FOR 2022 IS OPEN!!!

As a reminder, if you are not able to attend Mass one week, you can receive the bulletin directly by signing up at <https://ebulletin.jspaluch.com> or <https://www.jspaluch.com/Subscribe>.

Alternatively, please call the Parish office at (516)628-1113 to share your email with us and we can place you on the distribution list.

Please take this bulletin with you as you leave the Church. Do NOT leave this bulletin behind for hygienic reasons.
