TODAY'S READINGS:

First Reading — The wicked say: With revilement and torture let us put the just one to the test (Wisdom 2:12, 17-20).

Psalm — The Lord upholds my life (Psalm 54).

Second Reading — The wisdom from above is full of mercy and good fruits (James 3:16 – 4:3).

Gospel — Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me (Mark 9:30-37).

The Altar Bread and Wine used at our Masses this week are offered in loving memory of:

Manuela Sabin

by Nieves Sobrino

Servant of All: Reflection on the Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In today's First Reading, it's like we have our ears pressed to the wall and can hear the murderous grumblings of the elders, chief priests, and scribes—who last week Jesus predicted would torture and kill Him (see Mark 8:31; 10:33-34).

The liturgy invites us to see this passage from the Book of Wisdom as a prophecy of the Lord's Passion. We hear His enemies complain that “the Just One” has challenged their authority, reproached them for breaking the law of Moses, for betraying their training as leaders and teachers.

And we hear chilling words that foreshadow how they will mock Him as He hangs on the Cross: “For if the Just One be the Son of God, He will . . . deliver Him . . . ” (compare Matthew 27:41-43).

Today's Gospel and Psalm give us the flip side of the First Reading. In both, we hear of Jesus' sufferings from His point of view. Though His enemies surround Him, He offers Himself freely in sacrifice, trusting that God will sustain Him.

But the Apostles today don't understand this second announcement of Christ's passion. They begin arguing over issues of succession—over who among them is greatest, who will be chosen to lead after Christ is killed.

Again they are thinking not as God, but as human beings (see Mark 8:33). And again Jesus teaches the Twelve—the chosen leaders of His Church—that they must lead by imitating His example of love and self-sacrifice. They must be “servants of all,” especially the weak and the helpless—symbolized by the child He embraces and places in their midst.

This is a lesson for us, too. We must have the mind of Christ, who humbled Himself to come among us (see Philippians 2:5-11). We must freely offer ourselves, making everything we do a sacrifice in praise of His name.

As James says in today's Epistle, we must seek wisdom from above, desiring humility, not glory, and in all things be gentle and full of mercy.

By Dr. Scott Hahn

October 29th is the Feast of the Archangels and October 2nd is the Feast of the Guardian Angels. "Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones; for, I tell you, their angels continually see the face of my Father in heaven." (Mt. 18:10).

The belief in Guardian Angels has always been on the "mind of the Church" as St. Jerome expressed it: "how great the dignity of the soul, since each one has from his birth an angel commissioned to guard it." (Comm. in Matt., xviii, lib. II).

When it is stated that every individual soul has a guardian angel, this is not a reference to only the baptized, but rather to every living being that has been and will be created by God on earth.

Throughout the Old Testament, we find numerous Biblical references in support to the fact that angels are not only executors of God's will, but they are protectors of individual persons. In Genesis 18-19, we read that angels protected Lot from danger. In Exodus 32:34, we read where God said to Moses, "My angel shall go in front of you." In Daniels 10, we read of angels who are entrusted to protect certain districts. One angel is called the "prince of the kingdom of the Persians." Michael, the archangel, is called "one of the chief princes." (Dan. 12:13) In the Book of Sirach, we read, "He appointed a ruler for every nation, but Israel is the Lord's own portion." (Sir. 17:17).

In the New Testament, we find specific cases of angels coming to the help of those in need. In the Gospel of Mark, we read of the angels who ministered to Jesus when He was in the wilderness for forty days. (Mk. 1:13) In the Acts of the Apostles, we read of the angel who freed Peter from prison. (Acts. 5:19) In the Letter to the Hebrews 1:14, we read, "Are not all angels spirits in the divine service, sent to serve for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation?"

In summary, the angels are sent by God to lead and protect the cooperative souls on the path of their salvation, such a path ending in the heavenly Kingdom of God.

It is no wonder in view of all these facts, that in its great wisdom, the Holy Catholic Church determined it good for the Body of Christ to allocate a special day called, the Feast of Guardian Angels." The official Feast, restricted to certain areas that had requested such a Feast, finds its origin around the end of the 1500's. It was not until September 27, 1608 that Pope Paul V placed the Feast of Guardian Angels into the Liturgical Calendar of the Catholic Church.

The aforementioned does not imply that the Guardian Angels were not remembered in the Church prior to the 1500's. In fact, in "the 'Horologium magnum' of the Greeks there is a proper Office of Guardian Angels (Roman edition, 329-334) entitled 'A supplicatory canon to man's Guardian Angel composed by John the Monk' (Nilles, II, 503), which contains a clear expression of belief in the doctrine that a guardian angel is assigned to each individual. This angel is thus addressed "Since thou the power receivest my soul to guard, cease never to cover it with thy wings" (Nilles, II, 506)." (The Catholic Encyclopedia, Volume VII; 1910).

The Feast of the Guardian Angels provides us with the opportunity to appreciate the infinite goodness of God. In His love and Divine Wisdom, the Lord has provided each and every one of us with a special angel to attend to our physical and spiritual need to secure our salvation through faith in Jesus and the Sacrament of Baptism. Today, let us remember our Guardian Angels. Let us thank the Lord for this spiritual gift. Let us thank our individual angel for its protection and leadership, asking it to always remind us of its presence so we may walk in harmony with it towards the Heavenly Kingdom of God.

St. Gertrude's Guardian Angel Prayer

O most holy angel of God, appointed by God to be my guardian, I give you thanks for all the benefits which you have ever bestowed on me in body and in soul. I praise and glorify you that you condescended to assist me with such patient fidelity, and to defend me against all the assaults of my enemies. Blessed be the hour in which you were assigned me for my guardian, my defender and my patron. In acknowledgement and return for all your loving ministries to me, I offer you the infinitely precious and noble heart of Jesus, and firmly purpose to obey you henceforward, and most faithfully to serve my God. Amen.

Yours in Christ,

Father Dave Regan

Isaiah—Part 1

Beginning on October 5 – November 16

In the Bible, the primary role of the prophet is to speak for God, to see and hear as God sees and hears, and then to pronounce words of correction and hope. The book of Isaiah is quoted in the New Testament more often than any other Old Testament writing other than the Psalms. This book can be divided into three parts. The first part is about the Lord's holiness and power over the whole earth. In the second part the Lord offers hope to discouraged people. In the third part the Lord offers an especially bright future for those who are faithful to him.

All are welcome to join this study. Part 2 will continue in Lent.

The group will meet on Fridays 9:30 am to 11 am in the Parish Center, Room 1

Fall 2018 Desert Bread Lecture Series with Prof. Annabelle Moseley: Catholic Theology & the Arts

The Desert Bread Series is Sponsored by the Friends of the Seminary

Each session nourishes faith through presentations on the classic Catholic Arts (Visual Arts, Music, Literature). Lecture concludes with a delicious shared meal, so we may break bread in community of faith. Bring optional canned good to donate to local pantry to feed others. In an all-too-hectic and secular world, it can be a desert out there! "Desert Bread" offers the sustenance of following Pope Saint John Paul II's call to "make your life a masterpiece," as we discover through the Catholic arts how our lives can be transformed into works of art, too.

Dancing Dreams, a nonprofit dance program for children with physical and medical challenges, is currently accepting students for September enrollment at our new Glen Head location.

Glen Head classes will be held on Monday afternoons at 4:00pm and 4:45pm at Glenwood Landing American Legion located at 190 Glen Head Road Glen Head, NY 11545.

Classes are taught by physical therapists, and each child is paired with a 1:1 Helper, a high school student volunteer.

Participants are exposed to various genres of dance including ballet, tap, and hip-hop. A full-scale onstage performance culminates each year.

The suggested tuition is $375. However, scholarships are available, and no child is turned away due to an inability to pay.

To enroll, call 516.659.8704 or email laura@dancingdreams.org.

The IRA Charitable Rollover is back and is now permanent!

What's called a rollover is actually a "qualified charitable distribution" that can be made to our Parish.

If...

You are at least 70 1/2 years old on the date you make your gift

Your IRA is a traditional or Roth

You don't exceed your personal maximum of $100,000 per year in qualified charitable distributions

You will not have to report your distribution as income. It will be free of federal and New York State income tax, and it will count toward your required minimum distribution (RMD).

The best way for you to start is with your IRA custodian. Tell them you want to make a "qualified charitable distribution". In most cases you will only have to fill out a simple form.

VERY IMPORTANT!! Your gift must go directly from your IRA to the Parish. If you receive the money first then you'll be taxed on it like any other distribution.

Example: Mrs. Connors, age 76, has $125,000 in a traditional IRA and would like to contribute $5,000 to her Parish in 2016. Upon hearing of the Charitable IRA Rollover opportunity, she directs the custodian of her IRA to transfer this amount not later than December 31, 2016 directly to the Parish as a 2016 gift. She will not be subject to income tax on her $5,000 qualified charitable distribution.

This information is not intended and should not be construed as legal, tax or investment advice. For such advice, please consult an attorney, tax advisor or investment professional.

Wills and Bequests have the power to impact future generations. It's so easy to include our Parish in your Will and still provide for loved ones. You may be able to make a simple bequest by adding the following language:

"I give and bequeath the sum of $ _____ (or the % of), to be used for the general program of St. Gertrude Parish, a Catholic Church in the Diocese of Rockville Centre."

Ensure the future vitality of our Parish with your charitable bequest or consider other Estate Planning options, such as designating our Parish as beneficiary of a life insurance policy or an IRA account.

To receive a brochure about Wills and Bequests, please call Barbara Kilarjian at 516-379-5210 ext. 229
